Bob
To a swell guy and the best friend I ever had. Never forget the fun we had when we went to the prom and didn't stop till we got to Council Bluffs.
Remember choosing our own steaks. I stole about 8 of those. Remember the rules we put on each other's cars. I think you rode my car more than I have ridden in yours. Remember when we parked by the tennis court and I couldn't wind my own business and how you batted out to my place to take me on that double-date. (We finally had one). Rem. bowling in Lincoln. Don't forget all the beauties. Boy were we tried to pick up girls
I couldn't. That night we picked up Swanson and the rest and those beauties. Boy were we lucky that night. Rem all the of those put in on the practice field during football. Don't hard nights we double-dated out at Sauce Island. Best of luck forget the night we as good as they come. I hope to you and yours as Alec will continue our friendship next year. Well I have to quit now because I have to get my English and only have 13 min.
all my love
Diego Thompson

Best of luck to a fellow football player, singer (?) and physics sufferer. Remember all the fun we had in football. I don't think the average person realizes the invaluable importance of a good center. (Except Cougar!) Congrats, on being in the school trophy, in football! Let's get another trophy, in football! Let's get another trophy, in football! Let's get another

Heap Big Tales of the Future

Sound the tom-toms! Hear the Indian Love Call! Yes, lend your attention for the Warriors meet again! Ten years have lapsed since the last brave and last Indian maiden graduated in the class of 1952.

And such a profitable ten years as it has been! Fred Fujan, a rich furrier, who traps for his minks on his fur ranch near Ithaca has just obtained a new patent. He now crosses kangaroos with muskrats to produce fur coats with pockets.

Kathryn Mares is currently starring in the Broadway production of "My Friend Irma Joins The Navy." Co-starring with her are Dean Martin and Jerry Hoeven.

Fred Kolterman, wealthy vice-president of the Sinclair Oil Company attributes his success to one of his high school teachers who was always willing to offer constructive criticisms—Mrs. Angell.

Bernadine Vogler has recently completed her 32nd appearance with Danny Kaye at the Stork Club in New York. Their drum duo is gaining world recognition. She succeeds Glen Rosengren, another Wahoo alumnus, who is now appearing in the star role of "Just Plain Bill"—a new television show.

Because of his outstanding work in the field of medicine, Robert Virgl has become head surgeon at Doctors Hospital in Chicago.

Sibyl Hrdlicka, the vice-president of Pontiac Inc. has recently added Richard Vasina to her payroll. He beautifies the cars by painting the white side-walls on the tires.

Don Harris, that fragile lad who will be remembered as the one who never went out for sports in high school, has found his place in the world. He is the main foreman of the plant in Omaha which makes crocheted doilies and lace tablecloths exclusively.

The beautiful, talented, blonde Grayce Anderson is now a model in Paris. Yes, you've guessed it! She's modeling shoes.

LaVerne Meyers has just rceived her major at the College of Agriculture and is now making plans to wed Donald Mowers in the fall. Mr. Mowers owns a thousand-acre chicken farm near Colon.

Marilyn Mills recently completed a tour of Wahoo as a personal representative of Lane Bryant. She sells "clothes for larger women." Her best customer in this area is Donna Lou Anderson, R. N., who can buy her uniforms from this agency only.

Leland Robbins, the "tall man" of Ringling Brothers Circus, is spending his winter months in Wahoo under the employment of Robert Styskal, president of the First National Bank.

Misses Joyce Hagstrom and Lenice Beranek still retain their jobs of soda-jerks at the Thomas McMahon drug store in Wahoo. They are patiently waiting for their fiances to return from the Hawiian Islands. Incidentally, they have been employed here for five years.

Imogene Torrens, home extension agent at Prague, spends her Saturdays helping Bernice Maly, owner of the Wahoo Bakery.

Dolores Styskal is happily settled at Niagara Falls—not on her honeymoon but selling postcards to the tourists.

Bernie Kavan has recently been promoted to floor-walker in the Ladies Ready-To-Wear Department at Gold's in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Charles Borreson, still a bachelor, lives alone in his forty-store mansion with his key collection.

Mrs. Richard Nelson, who will be remembered as Lois Mays, is attending a cheer-leading convention in Chicago as an instructor. Her twin daughters are living testimonials of her fine ability to cheer.

"Little Jack Horner" might well apply to Jack Meduna for he makes pies and pastries at the Wigwam Cafe now.

Imogene Barry, because of her shy and retiring character, is now living the life of a recluse in southern California.

Heap Big Tales of the Future

Marla Carlson and Barbara Johnson, because of their inability to attract men, live a lonely life in their New York penthouse.

Gayle Carlson returned yesterday from Czechoslovakia where he has been visiting his relatives.

Annette Hageman, that quiet little girl of 1952, is happily married to an antique dealer. They live in their modest ten-story home at Ithaca.

Marilyn Gerdts is fast becoming rich because of her new job as taxidermist at Jim Vanek's Specialty Shop. He specializes in stuffed buffaloes.

Mary Ann Chapek completed her senior year by correspondence this June. Senior year of college, that is!

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Thoms (nee Joan Jensen) are taking skating lessons at the new two-block-long rink in Ithaca. You know New Orleans, Paris,,—Ithaca.

Robert Wilt, who manages the skating rink has hired Robert Bonow and Duane Nichelson as skate boys.

The Greyhound Bus line from Wahoo to Colon and parts north is now operated by Joan Strauss and Elva Kracl who operate a pool hall in conjunction with it.

That "hot" trumpet player, Dale Wurst has replaced Spike Jones at the Copa Cabana in Touhy, Nebraska. With him are Burton Johnson on tuba and Norma Jean Rood as trombonist.

Larry Leiber has achieved the heights of education by becoming president of Luther College. Because of his common interests in Luther, he should make a fine, broad-minded president.

Dorothy McDaniels has taken over the ownership of the Gibson Enterprises Company, including the City and Fairview Cafes. Carolyn Temple is now the owner of the midwest's largest taxi service. She has charge of hauling Dorothy's waitresses from one cafe to another. Betty Kavan is business manager for Miss McDaniels and also is chief wedding cake and wedding dance arranger. (Polkas a speciality). Marilyn Miners is employed as head waitress in charge of 150 other employees. She receives a salary of a dollar a week and all the food she can eat.

Robert Eliason has gone to the west coast to teach automobile mechanics in a school for airplane pilots.. He seems to like the weather, especially with his new 1962 Hupmobile convertable with the Tahiti muffler on it.

Charles Schneider has now been promoted from sack carrier to chief egg inspector of the Vaca chicken hatchery. Loretta Vaca, after tiring of waiting for her boy friend to return from Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, sold the Vaca bakery and bought the old Lampert building.

Because of his ability to keep books, Joe Krause has just landed a job in the Lloyd Zauss photography plant at Rochester, New York. The plant was purchased from the Eastman Kodak Co., with the help of Helen Lanik the multi-millionaire who recently married Bobby Reynolds.

Jean Woolsey is now performing on television on Saturday nights from New York. As champion women's wrestler, she has wrestled in Oslo, Nebraska, near Weston.

Carolyn Cameron's ability to get along with persons has been the leading factor in her choice of a professional business career which she is now pursuing in Paris, France. I won't say what she is pursuing.

Ray Keefer opened a bachelor's home last Tuesday. Because of his hatred and shyness toward women, he finds it both enjoyable and profitable. However, guests are always made welcome—they are met at the door and immediately served with pretzels and kool-aid.

Class Chieftains

The forum sponsored the Christmas assembly, December 28.

On February 27 the student forum, under the direction of Miss McCarter sponsored the following patriotic program which was presented by the speech and music departments, under the direction of Mrs. Krause and Miss Olson.

"All Out America" sung by the triple trio.

"America and Americans Criticized," an essay written by James Vanek read by Imogene Barry.

"I Got Shoes" sung by the sophomore quartet.

"America For Me," musical reading given by Carolyn Cameron, accompanied by Ray Keefer.

"Marching Song for a United World," sung by the girls' sextet.

"Little George Washington" and "His Face," patriotic readings by Ray Keefer.

Quiz Program by the Speech Class. Imogene Barry was the Quizmaster assisted by Ray Keefer, Carolyn Temple and Carolyn Cameron.

"American Hymn," sung by the mixed quartet.

Chieftain Staff

Not Shown: Joyce Hagstrom.

Although the Chieftain staff members soon recovered from before-issue fatigue and from nervousness, to them, each issue represented long hours, days, and even weeks of deliberate planning and preparation. The faculty advisor, always ready with sound advice and guidance, and the efficient editor, planned each issue. The articles not only had to be written but also typed and retyped by Miss Doty's competent typists, made into a "dummy copy," and stenciled. Cartoons and headlines were added before it could be mimeographed. This operation was accelerated and made much easier by the addition of a new mimeograph machine during the year.

After it was distributed came the gratifying reward. As students praised an article or complimented a staff member, the long wearisome hours and many sacrifices were forgotten. However, this feeling of carefree relief was soon cut short as work on the next issue began. The seven issues of the Chieftain Staff were an accurate record of the years activities.

Ramona and the Other Wahoo Indians

Best of luck in your senior year. Keep up the good work in speech.
Mary Ann

The romantic atmosphere of early California together with beautiful costuming, lighting effects, and striking new scenery helped to make the senior play "Ramona" a success. Helen Hunt Jackson's immortal love story thrilled the heart of its audience on March 28, 1952 as Barbara Johnson starred in the title role while Ray Keefer played opposite her in the part of her lover. Others included in the cast were Burton Johnson, Mary Ann Chapek, Grayce Anderson, Charles Borreson, Carolyn Temple, Don Harris, Fred Kolterman, Thomas McMahon, Imogene Barry, and Bernard Kavan.

The play was under the successful direction of Mrs. Mabel Krause, with Carolyn Cameron as student director.

Junior Indians Run Rampant

"We Shook the Family Tree" was presented by the Junior Class on November 9, 1951.

Through a merry mixture of monkeyshines, the plot thickened until Tom Snelling, Winkie Gleeson's boyfriend, stole a pair of trousers and was accused of being a housebreaker and thief. Tom's awkwardness in knickers and Leonard Lindgren's "apparent" embarrassment at losing his trousers created a laughing streak that could be heard throughout the crowd for the entire evening.

The use of the new stage with its modern lighting enchanced the atmosphere of this hilarious comedy.

The play was aptly directed by Mrs. Mabel Krause with Rita Fanning, student director.

Music Department

Instructors in the music department were Mr. Hughes and Miss Olson: the former directing band, chorus, and glee; and the latter in charge of girls glee and small vocal groups.

The band, which increased its membership this year to fifty-two, was of suitable size for marching. The members practiced diligently to prepare for the Ak-Sar-Ben Marching Band Festival on October 1. The band also attended, for the first time, the University of Nebraska Band Day, October 13, in Lincoln. It was also to participate in the Nebraska Wesleyan University's Band Day the previous week (but inclement weather caused cancellation of the program. The band played and marched for home football games and for the Luther homecoming.

As a concert band, music was presented for the senior and junior class plays, for several assemblies, and for commencement. The second annual tri-city band clinic was held in Wahoo, February 14, under the direction of Professor James King of Hastings College. Ashland, Bellevue, and Wahoo joined ranks in the clinic which took place in the new auditorium.

In the vocal departments the chorus was composed of sixty-two boys and girls; the boys glee, twenty-two members; the girls glee, thirty-two members. This year, for the first time in many years, the combined vocal groups presented an operetta entitled "The Gypsy Troubador." It was successfully staged to an audience of over four hundred persons on November 30.

In addition to the large groups, there were numerous small vocal groups. These groups were: girls' sextet, girls' triple trio, freshman girls' octet, mixed quartet, boys' quartet, boys' octet. The groups sang for various meetings and programs in and out of school.

Wahoo High School was represented at the State Music Clinic at York, November 15 and 17, by Bernadine Vogler, Dale Wurst, Miss Olson, and Mr. Hughes. Bernadine and Dale were members of the Clinic Band; the two instructors went to observe and to receive instructions.

Many small groups, as well as the large groups entered the District Music Festival at Fremont in April.

A survey of the music department would be incomplete without mention of the Pep band. Composed of but nine members, it added greatly to the zest and enthusiasm of the rallies and ball games. From "Tiger Rag" to "School Song" it was an inspiration to the students and to the ball teams.

On November 30, the vocal department, directed by Mr. Hughes and accompanied by Miss Olson, very successfully presented an operetta entitled "The Gypsy Troubadour." The romantic setting of the story was greatly enhanced by the gay costumes of the entire group, and also by the colorful dances of a group of girls.

The story was centered around Nikoli, his desire to become a poet, and his infatuation for a city bred money-seeker. His scheming cousin, Vario, plotted to disgrace Nikoli and become ruler of the tribe himself. Vario's plan was well on its way to fulfillment when it was exposed by Tom, Nikoli's college chum, and that "very remarkable man," Marko. As a result, Vario was banished, Nikoli found his true love in Rosita, and the whole tribe was happy in the thought of following the gypsy moon around the world and back again.

The cast of characters, in order of their appearance, was as fol' s: Todoro—Ruler of the gypsy tribe, Dale Wurst; Maria—his wife, Barbara Johnson; Vario—Todoro's nephew, a schemer, Don Harris; Janina—A gypsy girl, devoted to Marko, Grayce Anderson; Elena—A former sweetheart of Vario, Rita Fanning; Marko—the tribe's chief boaster, Burton Johnson; Rosita—a gypsy girl in love with Nikoli, Joan Jensen; Nikoli— son of todoro and Maria, a poet, Ray Keefer; Tom Gordon— Nikoli's college friend, Daniel Roberts; Mrs. Jean Jerrold—a designing widow, Nancy Hunter; Henry Clayton—a business man, James Thompson; Mary Matthews—a terrible talker, Carolyn Eliason; Clare Clayton—Clayton's daughter, Carolyn Sullivan.

To a real great guy remember good old Español & Physics. I hope to see you on the 1st team next yr "Chris"

The Warriors opened the football season with a slow but deliberate start by battling Seward to a scoreless deadlock. David City, one of the top teams in Class B, surprised Wahoo in its second tangle and handed the squad its only defeat of the season.

Following these two non-conference games the Warriors began their campaign to retain the conference crown. The fleet-footed team easily slipped past its first three opponents but was tripped up by Plattsmouth's Blue Devils. The Blue Devils fought them to a 14-14 standstill in a season's thriller. Wahoo got back into the winning column by pushing Bellevue aside in their next start. The Warriors reached the height of their glory by trimming Ashland, the traditional rival, on the Bluejays home gridiron. When Wahoo came out on top in the spine-tingling spectable they proudly gained the conference crown for the 3rd consecutive year.

The squad received additional honors when it was ranked ninth among the state's Class B schools. Individual Warriors also received recognition by being named on various mythical squads. Those honored are as follows: All Conference—Jerry Hoeven, Don Harris, and Robert Eliason. Honorable mention—Vennie Lanik, and Fred Fujan, World Herald, honorable mention All State—Don Harris, Lincoln Journal, honorable mention All State—Fred Fujan, Fred Kolterman, Don Harris, Robert Eliason, Vennie Lanik, and Jerry Hoeven.

Head mentor, Rex Johnson, and assistant coach, Kenneth Ackermann, are also deserving of praise for the excellent job which they did in developing the team.

The Pep Club of 1951-52 under the leadership of Bernice Maly has created several new ideas. Among these improvements are striking blue and gold beanies, and blue numerals to wear on the gold sweater.

This year the Pep Club chose a mascot, Mike Edstrom, to help the cheerleaders in their activities.

The officers of the Pep Club include: Bernice Maly, president; Nancy Hunter and Kathryn Mares, co-vice presidents; Barbara Johnson, secretary-treasurer; Sponsor, Mrs. Worrall.

Good luck to the guy who always has a smile on his face. Don't forget Physics & Spanish Cookies.

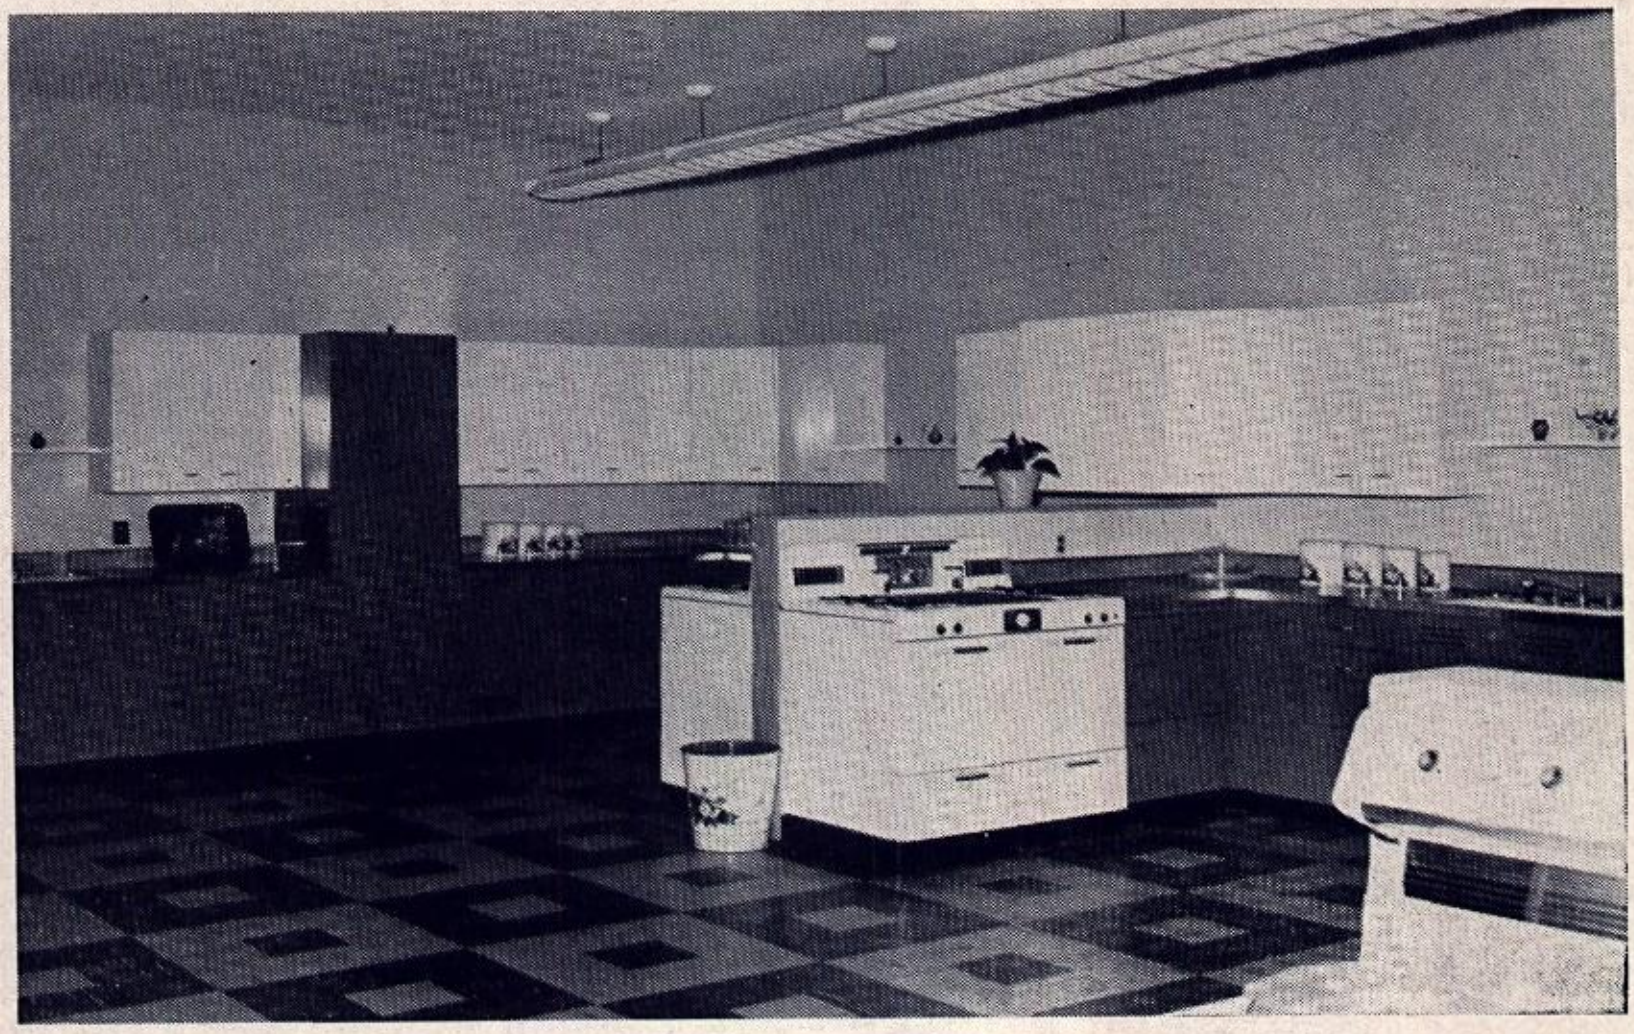
Hiawatha and Minnehaha

On Friday, November 16, the Pep Club sponsored a school dance called the Sport Hop, honoring the foot-ball team of 1951. The dance was held in the old gymnasium which was decorated with streamers in the colors of all the conference teams, goal and posts, footballs, football players, and signs denoting all voctories won by the Warriors.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the King of Sports, Fred Kolterman and the Queen of Pep, Lois Mays.

New Kitchens



The new home economics of the Wahoo High School is a model of modern efficiency. Five colorful model kitchens are arranged in a large, well-lighted room. These kitchens, each different in arrangement, offer the latest in equipment and mechanical devices to streamline cooking in the modern home.

The metal cabinets and counters of three of the kitchens are decorated in a combination of sunny yellow and terra cotta, while the other two are in the tones of blush pink and pine green. The counters are finished with marbelized patterned vinyl, in colors blending with the cabinets. The floor is an ivory and brown block pattern of asphalt tile. Counter accessories have been chosen to match each kitchen.

In the five kitchens are the latest models of stoves, two gas and three electric. One large refrigerator serves all of the kitchens. Electric mixers are mounted on swinging platforms; a garbage disposal unit is installed in one of the sinks; waffle irons and coffee makers complete the electrical appliance equipment. Other features of the kitchens are sliding shelves in the low cupboards, sliding towel racks under each sink, swinging shelves, two towel dryers that are equipped with blowers, corner shelf units and tray storage bins.

In this modern setting Mrs. Worrall instructs 56 students: 24 first year students, 6 second year, 10 senior girls, and 16 senior boys. The home economics department has been able to learn and do many new things this year because of the increased facilities.

School Board

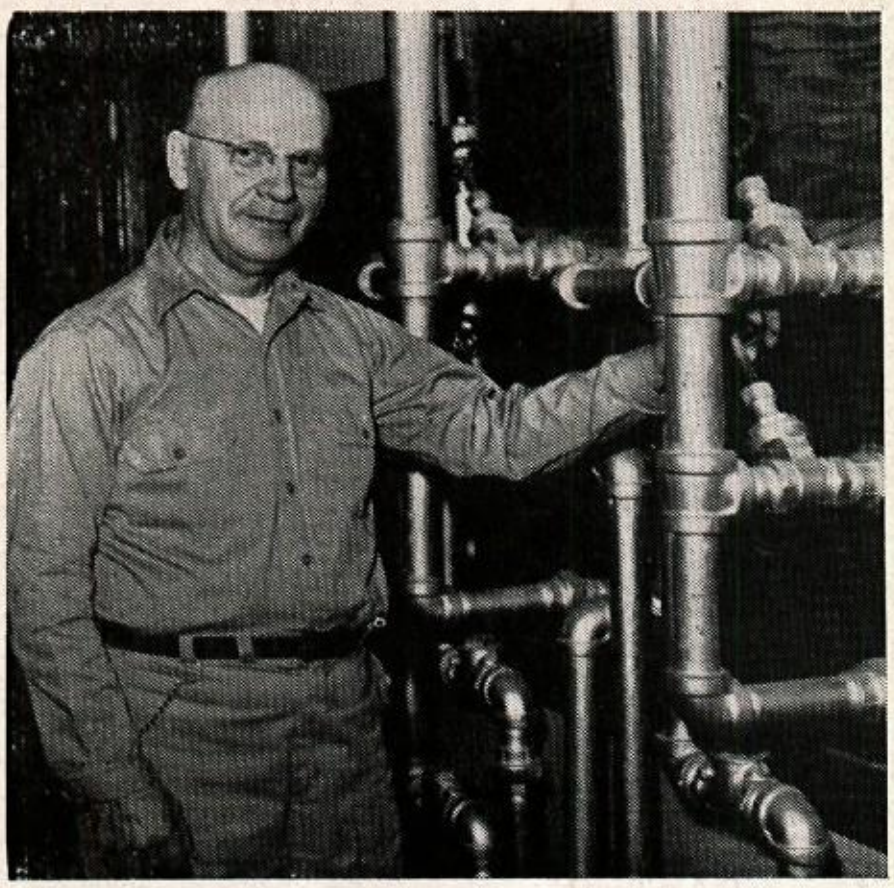
Left to right: Clayton W. Lindley, George A. Ayers, Franklin J. Cook, Dr. G. R. Halliburton, Paul E. Seidel, Fred H. Kolterman, Leslie E. Hult.

The six members of the board of education are elected by the school district at large for a term of six years.

The members of the board are: Dr. G. R. Haliburton, president; Fred H. Kolterman, vice-president; Leslie Hult; Franklin F. Cook; Clayton W. Lindley; George A. Ayers.

These members determine the broad policies of school operation throughout the school district. They elect the instructional and operational staff; they fix the annual budget; they sit as a tribunal to render decisions in controversial matters pertaining to the school.

The members of the board of education receive no compensation whatsoever for the service they render.



MR. NOBLE LARSON

Mr. Larson is a hardworking, congenial friend of all and his job as janitor consists of various never-ending tasks. His work day begins at 5:00 a.m. and ends anywhere from 6:00 to 12 p.m. During the course of the day he spends most of his time attending such tasks as sweeping, dusting and repairing numerous things throughout the school. This busy man still finds time to enjoy hobbies, one of his few relaxations. Among these are coin-collecting and hunting.

We, the Seniors of '52 shall always remember his pleasant smile and kind ways which urged us on during our four years at Wahoo High.

Dear Bob

Now that we find ourselves in the beginning to regret many to leave friends.
it as you. But during the next years we have certainly had our share of fun together will always cherish memories of the hours I spent at your home.
ping pong games, T.V. and the fun you had at your parents. I can't first team in football and basketball the track when running your athletic events.
and good fortune in the future.
I entitled your women killing ways

Best of happiness,

Jim Jones
